Additional Backup Information

The contract will provide Austin limestone boulders for Watershed Protection Department (WPD) erosion repair and stream bank stabilization projects constructed by the Field Operations Division throughout the City. The limestone boulders provide effective erosion resistance to the high velocity flows that can negatively affect embankments, cause excessive stream bank erosion, and potential damage to public and private property, including structures (houses and buildings). In addition, this contract will provide Leuders limestone boulders for the Parks and Recreation Department (PARC) for a variety of purposes including erosion control, benches for park users, signage, vehicle access barriers, planter beds and trail seating areas. The durability and low chalk residue characteristics of Leuders limestone has high integrity and is able to be used for many different applications.

The contract will allow WPD to ensure it receives an acceptable, high-quality product that will ensure uniformity in design and construction and PARC will be able to maintain uniformity throughout our parks and trails. In addition the availability of the products for the departments will allow both to address the City's needs and citizen's concerns in a timely manner.
